A prayer for the 4th

By Allen Ketchersid

Lord Jesus, thou who art the way, the truth and the life; hear us as we pray for the truth that shall make all free. Teach us that liberty is not only to be loved but also to be lived. Liberty is too precious a thing to be buried in books. It costs too much to be hoarded. Help us see that our liberty is not the right to do as we please, but the opportunity to do what is right. --Peter Marshall, before the U.S. Senate

My prayer for my country at this troubled time is much the same in regard to issues of liberty, truth, and a desire to do, and stand for, what is right. My prayer on this Independence Day is that God will remove as much of the fog and misinformation as possible in regard to the political controversies of our time. May God expose and reveal to me, and you, and all American voters, the undeniable truth about every political leader and decision-maker involved in the immediate conflicts and controversies in Washington, so that we can be armed with a dependable knowledge of the truth, and set free to willfully participate effectively in our democratic republic, and stand for, and do, what is right. And I pray that we can properly handle the truth.
