No Longer (Part 2)

The joy that surrounds His presence,
Enriches me greater than gold,
His gentle hands lift the burden,
That I can no longer hold.
He dresses the wounds of my spirit,
Inflicted at such a cost,
He reaches for me through the darkness,
And I am no longer lost.

For I am the captive He ransomed,
The reason for which He came,
And touched by His infinite mercy,
My heart is no longer the same.
Born without any possessions,
What care I when these be gone,
For I belong to the Master,
And I am no longer my own!
