All is Right

In the stillness of the morning,
With the stars still in the sky,
I can sit in meditation,
Just the Father, God and I.
It just fills my heart with rapture,
I can almost feel His touch,
I'm so thankful for His blessings,
For I owe the Lord so much.
And new hope, inside, is kindled
As the dawn replaces night,
Daybreak peeks from yonder treetop,
God is near—and all is right.

—Bill Carr—
