Local News

Sick:

James Collins is getting stronger each day and his wounds are healing nicely. He will see the doctor on Wednesday and find out about physical therapy.

Jay Lockridge, formerly of the Bakersfield and Rodeo congregations, passed away Thursday afternoon. He was placed in hospice a week earlier. Joyce is staying with their son and daughter-in-law, Jay and Kathy.

Traveling:

Judy Collins spent a few days in Denver taking care of James. He was very happy to be home from the hospital. She then went to Arkansas and Oklahoma for a family reunion and visiting family. She came home on Wednesday and is very glad to be back.
